What to expect during court:

- Check in with the officer located at the front of the courthouse.
- Remove sunglasses & hats.
- When your name is called stand and address the Judge.
- The Judge will explain your charges to you and ask for your plea.
- A continuance may be granted if you need time to discuss the matter with an attorney.
 - ADVICE WILL NOT BE GIVEN TO YOU BY ANYONE IN THE COURT ROOM.
- You may plead Guilty; and give an explanation to the Judge for consideration on sentencing.
- You may plead Not Guilty; and contest the charges. The case will then be set for trial.

Convictions on Violations do not include jail time. For this reason, trials are tried in front of the Judge only. The city will not provide an attorney to you.

You may hire an attorney at your own expense; and must inform the city 15 days or more prior to your trial.

During Trial

- You will present your case.
- The police officer will present the City's case.
- The Judge will rule on the evidence presented to him.

THE COURT DOES NOT GIVE LEGAL ADVICE.

IF YOU HAVE LEGAL QUESTIONS OF ANY KIND, CONTACT AN ATTORNEY.
